Report from the Director

Greetings! When my son was four or five years old I bought him a sketch book. While he did a few drawings of this own, his favorite activity was to ask me to draw pictures while he watched. When I asked him what he wanted me to draw next he would always say the same thing: "a truck". We filled several sketch books with cartoon drawings of trucks: dump trucks, cement trucks, container trucks, crane trucks, monster trucks, semis pulling trailers, and last but not least semis pulling flatbeds loaded with assorted construction equipment trucks. My wife claims our son said truck before he said mom or dad.

The Art Center will mount an exhibition by an artist with a similar, but more sophisticated attraction to trucks. John Himmelfarb: Trucks opens on July 16, continuing through October 23, 2016. Himmelfarb, a very accomplished Chicago based artist known for his humorous approach in making art, has been exploring trucks as a subject matter since the early 2000's. In addition to the exhibition at the Art Center, consisting of paintings, drawings, prints, and sculptures, the exhibition includes the Penelope Project, consisting of an actual truck, a 1946 Chevrolet farm truck, the artist transformed into a drivable sculpture. Think of a rusted old work truck, modified piecemeal with rebar and welded scraps of metal, loaded to the brim with barrels, water tanks, etc.

When not catching the eye of people passing by the Art Center, Penelope will be visiting area schools to promote the exhibition and introduce area students to Himmelfarb's humorous approach, combining fine art and pop culture. The visits to the schools will be supported with free educational materials developed in cooperation with Art Center staff, school art teachers, and the artist.

I want to express a special thank you to the Martin/Seamster Endowment for underwriting the Penelope Project, and the Sioux City Community Schools' Arts and Community Engagement

Program Coordinator Pat Toben for her valuable assistance in making the school visits possible.

In addition to visiting schools, Penelope will be featured at the Art Center's annual arts festival, ArtSplash, at Riverside Park on Labor Day weekend.

I hope you enjoy your summer, and I look forward to seeing you at the Art Center and ArtSplash.

Al Harris-Fernandez,
Director, Sioux City Art Center

NEW EXHIBITIONS

Sculpt Siouxland

Downtown Sioux City

June 2, 2016 – June 1, 2017

Sculpt Siouxland Celebration: Thursday, June 2, 5:30 – 8:00 pm

In its continuing effort to make a positive impact on downtown Sioux City, Sculpt Siouxland has brought in ten new sculptures for a one-year exhibition. The Sioux City Art Center and Sculpt Siouxland work collaboratively through financial support of the Gilchrist Foundation and many local businesses. Maps of Sculpt Siouxland will be available at the Art Center, Downtown Partners, and at two wayfinding stations along Fourth Street.

The Sculpt Siouxland Celebration will occur on the front lawn of the Art Center during the evening of Thursday, June 2. This festive reception for the sculptors also includes auctions of both the outgoing outdoor sculptures as well as smaller works suitable for indoor environments. Tickets may be purchased in advance by contacting the Art Center at (712) 279-6272.

John Himmelfarb: Trucks

Jensen, Everist, and Terra Galleries; the Atrium

July 16 – October 23, 2016

Reception: Saturday, July 16, 5:00 – 7:00 pm

Himmelfarb is one of the most respected artists of the Midwest. His work spans virtually all mediums, including painting, drawing, and printmaking, as well as sculptures in metals, ceramics, and found objects. Since 2003, he has created a large and varied series of works that focuses on trucks as the subject. In addition to this exhibition, Himmelfarb's series of truck-based artworks led to the publishing in 2014 of John Himmelfarb: Trucks: Recent Works, an extensive 124-page book.

In Himmelfarb's own words, "These works are not about trucks but about us, our histories, skills, coping mechanisms, ambitions and character." The Atrium will exhibit a number of his larger sculptures, while the 3rd floor galleries will present smaller sculptures and wall-mounted work. The exhibition will include an additional sculpture, which is the subject of what the Art Center has named the Penelope Project. The Penelope Project refers to one of Himmelfarb's "life-sized" truck sculptures, Penelope Awaiting Her Chamberlain, a 1946 Chevrolet work truck that has been converted into a mobile sculpture. This astounding sculpture will be on display on the Art Center campus and will also trek around Sioux City for visits to schools.

The Art Center is grateful to the Martin/Seamster Endowment for underwriting the Penelope Project. This project is also supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts.

Sioux City Art Center Selects

Main Gallery

August 20 – December 4, 2016

Reception: Friday, August 19, 5:00 – 7:00 pm

Sioux City Art Center Selects is a regional juried exhibition, open to all artists in Iowa, as well as artists living within 300 miles of Sioux City. Unlike traditional juried exhibitions that ask jurors to select individual artworks based on their merits, Sioux City Art Center Selects asks artists to submit a body of work, which will then be judged by the overall quality of the artworks and by the clarity and consistency of the body of work. The Art Center's director and curator will select up to ten artists, and will then work with each of them to bring work to the Art Center for this exhibition. The exhibition, therefore, will present visitors with a better understanding of how artists in our region are thinking and creating right now.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AT THE ART CENTER

DOCENT

Join the ranks of dedicated docents who lead school and adult groups through the ever-changing exhibitions. General docents provide a tour of the building and /or exhibitions, including information on the history of the Art Center, the permanent collection and a synopsis of exhibited works. ARTWORKS docents lead fifth grade tours and also teach a hands-on project. A background in teaching is helpful but not required. Docent training is provided.

WORKSHOP PROGRAMS Ages 3 and up

The Art Center can specifically design a hands-on art experience for groups or individuals of any age interested in experiencing the joy and satisfaction of painting, drawing, mixed media, sculpture, or working with clay.

- Girl and Boy Scouts – Badge earning
- Professional and Corporate Team Building
